Introduction

This is an exciting time to join UK-Med. We have expanded significantly over the last few years and have an ambitious strategy in place for growth.

The world is experiencing an unprecedented level of humanitarian need. Natural disasters, disease outbreaks and conflict can hit at any time.

The people affected are often the poorest and most vulnerable and the health problems they experience post-disaster are long-lasting. We believe that they deserve the highest quality emergency healthcare. We seek to save lives, but also to build resilient health systems so that people can lead healthy lives in the future.

Our strategic objectives address four main problems faced when providing emergency healthcare following a disaster:

- Emergency response: There are only a small number of international agencies and WHO verified Emergency Medical Teams capable of responding globally, at speed and scale, to spikes in need.
- Providing expertise: There are not enough medical and coordination staff as there are challenges recruiting, retaining and training the numbers required to meet growing need.
- Raising standards: The sector lacks consistency and consensus on training and accreditation for international health professionals.
- Building resilience: First response and continued support is most effective when provided by health professionals based within the country affected. Significant investment in training for staff is required to achieve this.

We are very excited about our plans to meet these challenges and to grow UK-Med and I hope you will join us on this exciting journey.

David Wightwick

About UK-Med

UK-Med (www.uk-med.org)

We train and deploy medical teams and specialists to save lives when epidemics, conflict and natural disasters hit. As disasters grow more frequent, severe and complex there has never been a greater need to respond quickly and effectively. We believe in a world prepared to help.

It started in 1988 with a team of eight Manchester clinicians led by our founder Tony Redmond, when a huge earthquake ripped through Armenia. Teams continued to deploy throughout the 1990's and 2000s, and when Ebola struck West Africa in 2014 UK-Med stepped up. We recruited and trained the one hundred and fifty UK clinicians who worked alongside local medical teams, other NGOs and DFID to bring the outbreak under control.

UK-Med has deployed teams to a range of countries and crises including Cape Verde, China, Gaza, Haiti, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Indonesia, Jordan, Kosovo, Pakistan, the Philippines, Sierra Leone and Bangladesh. Our teams have undertaken a range of work on deployment including general medical care, trauma and surgical care, outbreak response and training of local healthcare staff.
